2007 Senior Summit

Second Annual Senior Summit

Washtenaw county seniors are invited to attend this special day of discussions with legislators, their representatives, and other older adults. Come let policy makers know what's on your mind, hear about legislation that affects you, and meet others interested in having an impact on public policy. The Summit is part of the Housing Bureau for Seniors Aging in Place week, and special attention will be given to housing, transportation, long-term care, and services to help seniors stay in their homes and in the community.

The Summit is free and open to the public, but registration is required. A free lunch will be served.

Transportation assistance is available. For information, call (734) 712-3668. Please leave a message if we are not in, and we will get back to you as soon as possible.

Senior Advocates of Washtenaw

The Senior Advocates of Washtenaw is a nonpartisan group led by older adults. It works to organize and educate seniors, giving them the tools they need to make informed decisions and to advocate on public policy issues that impact their lives.

We actively seek members interested in education and advocacy on older adult issues.
